April 20:

Presenting Our 2015 Woman of the Year

For the past 38 years, our Woman of the Year award has been given to a woman living or working in the greater Woodstock area whose leadership and creativity in cultural affairs, economic development, education, environmental efforts, human services or civic endeavors has helped to enhance the quality of life in this community.

No one (except members of the committee) knows who she will be until the very last moment. You won't want to miss the great reveal, especially because this year we are meeting at the beautifully restored Waverly Ballroom, across the street from the Woodstock Theater.

News & Information

Application Deadline Nears for Francis Kuhn

As part of its mission of support in achieving business and educational goals, WPBW offers women in the Woodstock area an opportunity to win a Francis Kuhn Scholarship. Named for a former WPBW member and late Mayor of Woodstock, the scholarship is awarded to deserving women returning to school on either a full or part-time basis.

Applicants must be at least 22 years old and live within the District 200 school boundaries.

This year we are awarding three $1,300 scholarships. The money can be used for tuition, books, or other expenses related to a student's ongoing education.

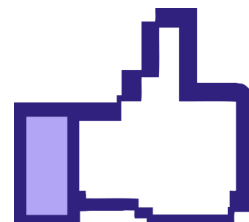

Applications can be downloaded from our website www.wpbw.org. They should be mailed to our post office box or to Tina Hill, 230 Verbena Ln., Woodstock, or emailed to tinarenee78@gmail.com. The submission deadline is April 15.

Scholarship committee chair Tina Hill reminds WPBW members that these scholarships are funded by our Autumn Art Tour. "We gratefully welcome the assistance of previous scholarship winners at this event to help us provide scholarship opportunities for other worthy students in the future," she says.

Laura Cullotta reports that our Facebook page is growing (being "liked") by more people every week. Please continue to help promote the page by "sharing" what is posted, helping to post information yourself, and "liking" what's being posted on the page.

"We want to have hundreds of people connected to our page so that when we have events and fundraisers, all of those people will receive posts advertising them," Laura says.

The work we do now to promote the page will pay off at our fall fundraisers, the Mum Sale and the Autumn Art Tour, and help make them a great success!
